The middle floor is where the main living space sits, with a good sized lounge that feels separate from the rest of the house. The main bedroom is also on this level and benefits from its own ensuite, alongside a family bathroom.

Up on the top floor, there's a larger double bedroom with a Jack and Jill ensuite that also connects to the landing, plus two further single rooms. It's a layout that works really well if you've got children and want to keep that space together on one level.
